Editorial note

Ants, our annual publication of the Kindergarten Section, takes us on a heartwarming journey through the delightful moments our children experienced while at the Kindergarten Section. Every photograph tells its own story, capturing the laughter, friendships, excitement and adventures that made their early school years so special.

This publication is dedicated to our young Class 2 graduates, with the hope that it will be a wonderful memorabilia in years to come.

Congratulations, Class of 2025!

Fred and Wendy

Class 1's weekend buddies

Fred (the monkey) and Wendy (the lamb)'s weekend visits to children's homes is an exciting experience for the students of Class 1. Each Friday, these children eagerly anticipate bringing their cuddly 'animal' friends home for the weekend. Each child takes Fred or Wendy home as their weekend buddy, takes care of them, "feeds" them dinner, sleep with them, next morning "brush" their teeth, play with them, take their cuddly (stuffed) buddy to their cousin or friends homes. On Sunday they write their diary to say what all they did with their new buddy. When they bring them back to school on Monday morning they tell the class how they spent their time with Fred or Wendy.

This activity fosters a sense of responsibility and compassion for animals amongst children.

When we came back from school we were hungry so we ate food

We played football in the garden.

Lastly we played in the garden. Goodbye!

This is my pet Fred.
I love Fred so much,
he is my friend.

I fed breakfast to Fred.

I was excited to bring Fred home

On Friday, I came home with Fred. I showered and prayed. We both wished for lots of candies and ice cream.

Before bed, me and Fred read a book.
We both enjoyed reading together.
Then we slept.

I am taking care of Wendy by brushing her hair.

Ordering food with Wendy eating icecream

We went to the grocery store together. I got mim crackers. he was very happy.

It's time to eat some chicken.

I took Fred home with me. He sat in my car. I showed him a lot of things outside the window like cars, trees and planes. We both enjoyed the ride.

Music Programme

KG Section

C.A.S. offers music classes to all students from Playgroup to Class 11 (O Level) as part of its Programme of Studies. In addition to regular music classes, at the KG Section Focused Music Classes (FMC) are also offered to children who opt for it. As young as Playgroup children learn to play different instruments. To encourage them further, they perform in presentations attended by parents, in the Music Hall (Kindergarten Section) and in the auditorium at the Main Campus.
